

1. INTENT

Sydney Uni Sport is committed to demonstrating the highest standards of personal, professional and athletic conduct. Members of clubs administered by Sydney Uni Sport athletes, coaches and sporting officials represent Sydney Uni Sport during training and competition. This representation carries with it great opportunities and commensurate responsibilities and obligations. Ignorance of those responsibilities can damage the individual, Sydney Uni Sport and the team the athlete represents.

This Code of Conduct (Code) has been prepared to provide a clear framework for members of clubs administered by Sydney Uni Sport, athletes, coaches, sporting officials and others covered by the Code to act within responsibly in the pursuit of athletic excellence. Any person may make a report regarding suspected noncompliance with the Code. The Code provides sanctions for unacceptable behaviours and attitudes.

This policy may be amended from time to time.

2. SCOPE

The Code applies to:

- All Sydney Uni Sport Elite Athlete Program scholars and any other person training or playing with, or participating in, a Sydney Uni Sport club or program or representing a team associated with Sydney Uni Sport (Athlete);
- All coaches, officials, members and volunteers associated with a Sydney Uni Sport club or program or representing a team associated with Sydney Uni Sport; and
- Contractors.

It is in addition to any individual employment, scholarship, volunteer or other agreement that a person may have with club or Sydney Uni Sport, which may detail further terms and conditions as well as obligations.

The Code will extend throughout the entirety of the association that an Athlete or other individual covered by this Code has with Sydney Uni Sport. When representation of other sports organisations occurs, it is the responsibility of the Athlete to be aware of that organisation's code of conduct (or ethical standards) and the Code and observe that which will afford the highest standard. The standards in this Code are expressed, in some instances, in general terms in order for them to be applied to Athletes engaged in a variety of sports.

3. POLICY
